ABOUT US

Get to know who we are at Neumann van Rooyen
and what drives us

Our DNA is a shared set of values. It lies at the heart of each group professional.

WE CARE

We care for our clients, our staff and our community.

INNOVATION

We innovate in our services and how we provide them.

EXPERTISE

We are experts that aim to simplify the complex.

STANDARDS

We set standards and measure ourselves against them.

DIVERSITY

We embrace diversity.

WHO WE ARE

We are a specialised law firm operating in the Goldfields region of the Free State and offer a broad range of specialist legal services to our clients.

We follow a client-orientated management philosophy where our clients come first and constantly re-evaluate how we can best serve them. We are a new breed of law firm and embrace these values to set us apart and be a truly South African law firm. We lead from the front and choose to set the standard rather than follow.

OUR HISTORY

Neumann van Rooyen Inc. has a rich history that extends over several decades. The firm's origins date back to 1951 with the establishment of the firm Sylvia Oversby, which later became known as Daly & Neumann.

On 1st July 1996, Daly & Neumann merged with Oosthuizen, Mostert & Van Rooyen who were founded in the early 1960s. The new practice became known as Neumann van Rooyen.

On 1 August 2003, Neumann Van Rooyen merged with Sesele attorneys with the intention of upholding affirmative strategies and diversity.

Contributing to the community

We care deeply about our community and the development of our people. Therefore, we support a variety of charities and community initiatives as a firm and encourage our professionals and administrative staff to get involved in our various CSI projects.

If you would like to request assistance, kindly email your application to: nvr@nvrllaw.co.za

The application should include the following:

- Detailed application for the project
- NPO registration certificate
- PBO registration certificate
- Constitution or founding documentation
- Full financial statement for the last financial year

GIVING BACK

With love

We give back to the estate agents and partners in the housing environment in Welkom, hosting an Annual Property Morning in August yearly. We spoil them with great prizes and lucky draws and see to it that they get good mileage out of the day. We have influential presenters that share important information with the group.

With warmth

We also specialise in non-profit organisations and the corporate governance involved therein. Several of the directors serve on NPO boards and our love for the community forms a central point in this part of our practice. Some Neumann van Rooyen Staff members creating a morning of happy faces, handing out Christmas presents, playing games, singing and enjoying ice cream together.

GROUP ASSOCIATION

The Phatshoane Henney Group is the largest association of independent law firms in South Africa. The group, currently comprising of nearly 45 law firms with more than 62 offices in 9 provinces and over 450 professionals, the Group continues to grow year-on-year and expand its presence to major centres across South Africa.

The group was founded by Bloemfontein firm Phatshoane Henney inc. in response to an identified need of law firms to strategically position themselves for the future and access the economy on the scale of a national group with national visibility and brand awareness. Group firms are each dynamic and prominent law firms in their respective regions and subscribe to the group values of quality, service delivery, black economic empowerment and training and development. Membership provides firms with a range of benefits – from vital support services, marketing infrastructure and strategic partnerships that create value, cost savings and business opportunities for firms.

With more than 450 professionals in the group, the directory of legal services available in the Group enables member firms to draw on a broad range of legal skills and experience and support their clients through this shared expertise, expanding the capability of each Group firm to meet the legal needs of their clients. By sharing support services such as legal updates, knowledge centres, newsletters and research support, the Group enables member firms to stay up to date with new legal developments and ensure that clients receive the most relevant legal advice from Group attorneys.

Group members pool their resources and expertise to foster a national service directory and network of firms and professionals that can assist clients across South Africa, in addition to providing opportunities for candidate attorneys and professionals to work at firms in most major centres. The group brand is a complimentary brand to that of individual firms and strengthens a firm's brand by adding differentiation and referencing the value and quality components of the group and the cascading benefits it holds for clients serviced by group firms. The group brand has also grown strongly since its establishment and has obtained recognition as a brand in the legal profession. Although not contractually required of any firm, strong relationships and referral networks are naturally formed between member firms, providing additional benefits.

The Phatshoane Henney Group is the largest association of independent law firms in South Africa. The strength, size and geographical location of Group firms help unlock this vital value for clients and ensures that member firms use the inherent economies of scale present in the association to set new standards for the legal profession.

A NEW BREED OF LAW FIRM

The group addresses the strategic need of firms to raise their BEE profile, increase their firm visibility and differentiation in their respective regions and nationally, access high-quality support services, enhance negotiating power with financial institutions, leverage cost reductions and position themselves strategically for growth.

National recruitment campaigns and bursary programmes for Group candidate attorneys further help safeguard the future of member firms through the recruitment of top young professionals from across South Africa, ensuring a high calibre professional service and peace of mind to any client entrusting a member firm with its legal affairs.

Finally, Group standards implemented across all firms draw on the strengths and expertise of all members to help implement best practices at firms that focus positively on client service, quality control, and work efficiency - directly impacting on the service experience and the readiness of member firms to serve their clients with confidence.
